CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITIES:

SHOPPING & DINING

In this shopper's paradise, explore traditional craft studios, trendy boutiques and cutting-edge galleries, often within the same block. After finding that certain special something, your attendees will be ready to savor our rich culinary heritage. With 250 independent restaurants and more than a dozen craft breweries, you'll quickly understand why Asheville is regarded as Foodtopia®. ExploreAsheville.com/Foodtopia

ATTRACTIONS

From the home, gardens and winery of George Vanderbilt's magnificent Biltmore to North Carolina's newest state park, Chimney Rock, the Asheville area offers attractions that are perfectly suited for your group. Wholly unique, they promise experiences that your attendees will be talking about long after your meeting is over.

UNIQUE VENUES

Make your offsite night memorable with one-of-a-kind places and experiences. Enjoy bluegrass and BBQ under the stars at a rustic mountain ranch. Sample culinary delights conjured up by one of Asheville's acclaimed chefs. Or listen to the cool sounds of a jazz quartet in a chic modern art gallery.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

When it comes to nightlife, downtown Asheville's numerous and diverse theaters, nightclubs, bars, galleries and performance venues of all varieties (street corners, included) showcase a spellbinding line up of music, dance, theatre and art that's sure to captivate your group. No matter what your taste, someone in downtown Asheville is playing your tune.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

With more than a million acres of surrounding national forests, Asheville serves as the perfect jumping off point for adventure. Whitewater rafter and ziplining offer great ways for groups to get outdoors. Golfers can choose from a variety of beautiful and challenging mountain courses, including classics designed by the revered golf architect Donald Ross.
